6.1. the name, surname or company name;

6.2. the address of the Client;

6.3. the date of filing the claim (complaint);

6.4. the essence of the claim (complaint), i.e. the person's rights or legitimate interests that have been violated;

6.5. the Client's requirements to the Institution;

6.6. other available documents relating to the claim (complaint), if needed;

6.7. the applicant's contacts: phone number or email address;

6.8. If at least one of the required requisites is missing, the Institution has the right to request the Client to complete the claim (complaint).

Processing claims (complaints)

7. Claims received are recorded in the Register of claims (complaints), which must include the following verified data:

7.1. the Client's name, surname or company name;

7.2. the address indicated in the claim (complaint);

7.3. the date and the method of receipt of the claim (complaint), name of the employee who has accepted the claim;

7.4. a summary of the claim (complaint);

7.5. the Institution's service or its part which is the subject of the claim (complaint);

7.6. the date of response to the Client;

7.7. final result (decision) of the claim (complaint) examination.

8. A claim (complaint) shall not be accepted or processed, if:

8.1. the claim (complaint) does not comply with the requirements set out in clauses 5 and 6;

8.2. incomplete, unreadable or unclear information is provided in the claim (complaint). A responsible employee of the Institution must request the Client to clarify the information, if possible.

9. The Client's claim (complaint) shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the state law of the licensed Paysera company that has registered the Client in the System, the principles of respect, fairness, and justice.

10. Claims (complaints) are processed and responses shall be provided in accordance with the following order:

10.1. if the Client is a User, the Institution shall examine the claim not later than within 15 (fifteen) business days as of its receipt at the Office, unless the Institution cannot provide the answer within 15 (fifteen) days due to reasons beyond its control. In this case the Institution shall provide the User with a non-final response, indicating the reason for the delay and the deadline for submitting the answer. Either way, the deadline for providing the final answer shall not exceed 35 (thirty five) business days;

10.2. if the Client is not a User, the Institution shall examine the claim no later than within 30 (thirty) days from the date of its receipt at the Office, except in cases where the examination of the claim (complaint) requires additional documents or information, or where other acts related to the provision of the Services, which are obligatory for the Institution (such as payment card rules of international organizations), establish a different time frame.

11. If a claim (complaint) cannot be examined within the time limits referred to in clause 10 of the present Rules, the Client shall be informed of the reason and, if necessary, requested to provide additional information, indicating when a response to their claim (complaint) is to be provided.

12. After a claim (complaint) has been examined, the decision as to its reasonableness shall be put in writing, i.e. the Client is provided with a written response.

13. When a Client's claim (complaint) is not satisfied or is satisfied partially, the reasons for the refusal to satisfy the claim (complaint) of the Client, as well other remedies, including but not limited to possible dispute resolution means and rights, shall be indicated in a response to the Client.

14. A response to the Client shall be provided via the same channel the claim (complaint) has been received, unless otherwise indicated by the Client.

15. Client claims (complaints), materials, documents related to the examination of these claims (complaints) and a response provided to the Client shall be stored not less than 3 (three) years as of provision of the last response to the Client.

Final provisions
